LEI ALOHA, O. E. S., TO HOLD DOLL FAIR IN NOVEMBER

The members of Lei Aloha Chapter No. 2, O. E. S., are busy making doll clothes for the doll fair which they are to hold in the latter part of November. The dollies are to represent many nations, and they will be all sizes. Baby dolls, beautiful dolls, and all sorts of dolls are being dressed for the sale.

As yet the exact date has not been set, but a most suitable location, the home of Mrs. Robert Lishman, has been selected for the fair. Though the dolls will be the most prominent part of the entertainment, there will also be a grab bag, a fish pond, as well as refreshments.

The proceeds of the fair will go towards the charity fund and will help with the other demands that are made upon the chapter.

Smith Paintings on Exhibit.

Honoluluans are to have another opportunity of seeing the Hawaiian paintings of Mr. Duncan Smith at the Kiohaha Art League this evening. The pictures have been on exhibition all week, and the rooms will be kept open until Saturday, but this is probably the last night that Mr. Smith will be present to answer questions concerning them. It is well worth the while of anyone to see the paintings, whether with a desire to purchase or not, for, as has been said before, no artist has ever visited the Islands and in such a short period been able to master the wonderful effects of the Hawaiian coloring as has Mr. Smith. There is hardly a doubt that the majority of the canvases will be purchased before the artist leaves Honolulu; for he has depicted many scenes that other artists have sighted, as well as those that are popular with the tourists.

College Club.

The College Club will hold the first of its yearly meetings tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock at the Colonial Hotel. These meetings are held the second Tuesday of each month and are for the members only. The meeting tomorrow will be a social affair, and it is hoped that all of the members will be present.

The College Club tends to bring together those who are interested in education, and it also does some charitable work, by means of helping young girls through college.

Morning Music Club to Meet on Wednesday.

With the month of October comes the opening of the clubs that have been closed during the summer. The College Club holds its first monthly meeting tomorrow afternoon, and on Wednesday morning at half past ten the Morning Music Club will hold the first of its meetings at the home of Mrs. L. T. Peck. This will be for members only and the program will be an interesting one. Miss Edith Rosslyn Collais is the chairman of the program committee this year and she has selected Mrs. Kenneth Barnes as her assistant for the first meeting.

The program will be as follows:
Minuet Arranged for Piano by Mr. Sherwood
Romance Sibelius
Miss Barnes
Tolly Willis De Arne
Miss Ward
Songs in a May Night (Nocturne) Poldini
Melody in E Rachmaninoff
Mrs. Richards
Phyllis Has Such Charming Graces A. Young
Leezie Lindsay Malcolm Lawson
Mrs. Weight
Oriental Melody Stozowski
Idyl in A MacDowell
Mrs. Whitney
Vergessenheit (Modern Greek Ballad) Madchen Lieder von Fiehlitz
Mrs. Lindsay
Concerto in E Minor Mendelssohn
Andante Mrs. Ingalls
Berceuse Chopin
Romance Moskowski
Mrs. Balch
Whither Lassen
Mrs. Tenney Peck

LADIES NIGHT IS Y.M.C.A. FEATURE

Ladies' Night will prevail next Friday evening at the Y. M. C. A. when the building will be thrown open to both men and women in the first annual celebration of the opening of the new building on Hotel and Alakea streets.

A. T. Wisdom, secretary of social privileges of the association, is making preparation to entertain at least two thousand men and women of the city. Special music in the lobby, games in the gymnasium, a ladies' bowling tournament, and a concert in the games hall will be among the special features of the evening. Miss Collais and Mrs. Tackabury will sing at the concert and Prof. de Gracia will render several instrumental selections. Other musicians will be secured in order that the association may entertain its guests with a good concert of at least an hour's duration.

The president of the association, R. H. Trent, will speak upon "The Association's Work in the New Building" and the services of some other well known business man will be secured to speak upon "The Association from the Standpoint of the Businessman."

The billiard rooms will be turned over to the exclusive use of the ladies who wish to match their skill against that of their escorts. A bowling match between two teams composed of ladies will be played. The whole building will be open for inspection to all. Refreshments will be served by the social committee during the evening and an orchestra will furnish music. All those desiring invitations for the social may obtain them at the desk in the lobby of the association building.

WOMAN'S BOARD OF MISSIONS TO MEET AT CENTRAL UNION

The Woman's Board of Missions will meet in the Central Union church, tomorrow afternoon at 2:30, and the literary topic, "The World's Bible or Sacred Books," will be the subject of discussion and will be in charge of Mrs. W. L. Whitney. A report of the Portuguese department of the work will be presented, and the members of the Aurora society will render a musical program.

The yearly special collection for the Armenian Orphans' Relief Fund will be taken, and it is expected that letters from the little Armenian proteges will be read by Mrs. Coan, with whom they correspond.

Mrs. Deaa, Rockwell Wickes, one of Central Union's missionaries to China, en route to her new home, will be in attendance, and a social hour after the session will give all present an opportunity to meet her.

A cordial invitation is extended to all ladies interested in the work, whether or not they are connected with Central Union church.

CHANGE OF BILL AT EMPIRE TONIGHT

Both acts, that comprise the Empire Theater vaudeville, are billed for changes tonight, while five new pictures will be shown that are claimed by the management to be of the best that has ever been shown at Honolulu's pioneer picture house, a particular feature of the picture program being another new Pathe's Weekly, showing, among other subjects, the raising of the ill-fated Battleship Maine, and a graphic picture of the havoc wrought by the recent cyclone in and around Janesville, Wisconsin. As is usual on the Empire program, comedy pictures, of the laugh provoking kind, will predominate, and with a good selection of moving pictures, and vaudeville that is entertaining, the empire bill for tonight makes a bid for patronage that is the most earnest this theater has made in many months.

LAST WEEK OF LANCASTERS AT YE LIBERTY THEATER

While Patterson's Art Studies continues to be the headline act at the Liberty Theater, tonight's offering of the Lancaster Opera company will doubtless give the Art Studies a close run for first honors, as their selections tonight will be Neapolitan Folk songs, a sample of which these clever singers introduced in their initial program. This is the last week of the Lancasters and their departure will be with regret from hundreds of music loving theater goers.

Next on the program in point of interest will be four "released" animated pictures, all of a character that is believed will prove a strong attraction alongside the artistic "living models" and the excellent singing of the Lancaster aggregation.

FOUR FIRST-RUN PICTURES ARE ON HAWAII'S BILL

Four first run pictures each in a different vein is the Hawaii Theater's offering for tonight and tomorrow night. On Wednesday evening a two reel film entitled "Tragedy of the Desert" will be the big offering. This feature ranks with Homer's Odyssey and will no doubt crowd the cozy little theater during its run.

Tonight's picture includes "Little Keeper of the Light" an emotional picture "The Sheriff's Prisoner" another one of those exciting western pictures, "A Stern Papa" a comedy of the first water and "A Woman's Way" a true to life picture of most every day life.

"Young man," said the father of a bright boy, "this school report of yours is very unsatisfactory. I don't like it."

SHE HAS BEAUTY TO MATCH VOICE

Probably one of the greatest assets Madame Elenora de Cisneros has as an operatic singer is her dramatic personality. There are singers and singers whose voices have been the marvels of the age, but they have lacked physical beauty, which materially affected their success. One unconsciously associates with the stage the idea that every professional, whether actress or singer, is possessed of great beauty, and when a concert singer makes her appearance and does not fulfil this idea, there is an immediate pang of disappointment and the voice is not so keenly appreciated.

Madame de Cisneros has called forth columns of praise, not only for her voice, but for her magnificent personal appearance, for the exquisite taste of her gowns. The Philadelphia Press had this to say about her:

"The Brangaene of Elenora de Cisneros was a wonderful piece of work. Here was finished vocalism of a very superior kind added to a personal presence and charm of appearance which were notable. Mme. de Cisneros was the most regally beautiful Brangaene we have ever had, her choice of costumes going far to aid her in presenting some of the most beautiful pictures which it is our good fortune to have seen upon the stage. Certainly the lyric stage has never offered anything more pleasing to the eye than she was last night, and her finished art went far to make the performance as important as it was."

Madame de Cisneros will give two concerts at the Royal Hawaiian Opera House—Friday, October 11, and Tuesday, October 15.

The sale of seats began today at the Promotion Committee's room.
